

MRS. GREEN'S ILLNESS IS ONLY A SLIGHT COLD

Wealthiest Woman's Physician and Son Deny She Is Suffering
From Paralytic Strokes.

Mrs. Henry Green, considered the world's wealthiest business woman, is confined to her room at No. 7 West Nineteenth Street as a result of a cold contracted while motoring last Thursday. For several days rumors have been rife that Mrs. Green was ill as a result of three paralytic strokes. It is admitted she suffered a slight stroke about a month ago, but she almost recovered from its effects.

Dr. Henry M. Painter of No. 62 West Fifth Street, Mrs. Green's physician, to-day said she merely had a slight cold, but that owing to her age she was told to remain in her room. Col. Edward Green, Mrs. Green's son, and Mrs. Matthew Wilks, her daughter, spent yesterday with their mother. Col. Green said:

"My mother had a slight stroke a month ago, and since then has been moved in an arm chair. A few days ago she caught a cold, so we are taking good care of her. You'd think she was able to manage her own affairs, if you heard the way she puts me over the jumps."

G. H. HUBER, DIME MUSEUM BUSINESS FOUNDER, DEAD

Opened World Famous Enterprise
in Fourteenth Street More Than Thirty Years Ago.

George H. Huber, father of the dime museum business, in which he made $1,000,000, died Saturday night at his home, No. 1919 Seventh Avenue. Funeral services will be held there at 7:30 P. M. to-day. There will be services also at 1:30 P. M. to-morrow at the Elks Club, Brooklyn Lodge, No. 22, No. 153 Oxford Street. Interment will be in Lutheran Cemetery.

Mr. Huber was born at Lockport, O., Sept. 23, 1843. He became interested in amusement enterprises early in life, and more than thirty years ago opened in Fourteenth Street, where Luchow's restaurant now stands, the most famous dime museum in the world. His roadhouse, at One Hundred and Sixty-third Street and Jerome Avenue, was burned two months ago.

TWO DIE WHEN 'BORROWED' AUTO SKIDS; DRIVER HELD

Brakes Suddenly Jammed On, Machine Hits Signal Post and Is Wrecked.

John Haughey, a chauffeur of No. 124 Tenth Avenue, Manhattan, was arrested to-day in the Flushing Police Court charged with homicide because two men with him in a "borrowed" automobile were killed in an accident.

The car belonged to Robert Lake of Corona. Haughey started in it yesterday morning with seven friends for an outing in Duer's Park, White-stone Landing, L. I. They were going down a hill when Haughey saw the Long Island Railroad tracks below him. He jammed on the brakes suddenly and the car skidded.

The car struck sideways against the iron post of the crossing signal and broke in two. Five of the men, not seriously hurt, are in the Flushing and Jamaica Hospitals. Two died early to-day—James Weatherall of No. 500 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, and Frank Haughey of No. 533 West Fifty-third Street. Haughey explained he jammed on the brakes because he feared a train might be approaching. Magistrate Miller held him for examination.

PAINTER SLIDES 17 FLOORS. Another Near Death When Rope on Scaffold Turns.

One of the ropes holding a painter's scaffold eighteen floors above the ground at No. 15 East Twenty-sixth Street, began to unravel to-day while Charles Bauer and William McMillin were adjusting it and Bauer slid down the rope to the roof of a one-story structure.

The tipping of the scaffold led McMillin clinging to life to the ropes at his end. The scaffold slid down four stories till the unraveling rope jammed the pulley and swung the platform to the front of the building. Two painters on another scaffold threw McMillin rope and pulled him around so he could climb into a window. Paint spilled from the scaffold fell on a horse, which ran away.
